

A Parents Survival Guide to College and Financial Aid

A practical and quick read for all parents and their children, A Parents Survival Guide to College and Financial Aid gets you started on the right path and gives parents invaluable advice and peace of mind as they help their children navigate those first precarious steps of going to college. . . . a standout resource that gets to the heart of what students and their families need to know when facing two of lifes most important decisions: choosing a college and financing a college education. This book should be required reading for all families prior to beginning the college decision and financial aid process. Patricia R. Thompson, Assoc. Vice Chancellor of Student Financial Aid Services System Administration, State University of New York (SUNY)
