

Northcliffes Legacy: Aspects of the British Popular Press, 1896-1996 (Contemporary History in Context)

The essays in Northcliffes Legacy explore the popular press since 1896 - from Harmsworths Daily Mail to Maxwells Mirror . Topics include: the sorry tale of the Daily Herald ; early dealings with the BBC; the role of photojournalism; the contribution of Reuters; and the roots of financial journalism for a mass market. The history of the popular press has always been about more than big headlines and big profit margins, as this volume successfully demonstrates.
