

Fancy the classic Champagne Cocktail that Esquire magazine called one of the Ten Best Cocktails of 1934? Lean toward something more daring like the creamy, frothy Soyer au Champagne crafted by 1840s celebrity chef Alexis Benoit Soyer? Looking for a modern elderflower-scented sparkler like the Waterloo Sunset or a Negroni Sbagliato? Or are you simply an unrepentant sipper of the bubbly in any way shape or form? Then you'll love the revised and expanded 2010 edition of Millers and Browns 1999 classic, Champagne Cocktails. Among the 135 cocktails in this breezy tome, you'll find recipes, tips, wisdoms, witticisms, and wacky quotes from such diverse sources as Voltaire and the British comedy hit Absolutely Fabulous. Whether you're pouring a Spanish cava, an Italian spumante, prosecco, or franciacorta, a German sekt, or something French this holiday season, you'll find a cocktail--an even a food accompaniment--to suit your taste in the pages of this classic Miller & Brown volume.
