

Fortress

Steve E. Larson learns the harsh reality of war, finding himself relieving the past as a youthful American soldier flying combat mission from England in the summer of 1943. As the heated battle over the skies of Germany's Fortress Europe, take their toll on Steve, he finds comfort in the arms of English women. With each mission, life becomes more meaningful. He meets two women that are different as night and day. Captain Ann Toille, hardened by the war and as cold as ice, and Cindy Graham a local working girl that he can escape to and enjoy the pleasures of the world. Fate steps in and he gets shot down over Germany. Left with only the clothes on his back he tries to make it back to England before getting captured. He finds out that there is more to this war and to life, than what he is living. He gets befriended on the way by Carolyn only to leave her hanging on death's doorstep. Returning to England feeling low in heart, he turns to Cindy only to regret being with her. Fate steps in again as he meets Ann. Can Ann's love nourish him back even though it is not her love that he desires?
