

Grandparents: Enjoying and caring for your grandchild

Practical, authoritative, and written by trusted childcare expert, Dr. Miriam Stoppard, Grandparents tells caregivers what they need to know about helping to look after grandchildren, and contains the most up to date information on all aspects of childcare. Filled with indispensable advice from how to deal with changing family relationships, breast versus bottle feeding, weaning and allergies to sleep training, everyday care, and health and hygiene, Grandparents is the complete guide to looking after a grandchild from newborn to the age of three, whether as an occasional visitor or a regular fulltime caregiver.
