Featuring presidents and CEOs representing some of the nations leading public relations firms, this book provides a broad, yet comprehensive overview of the process involved in making the consumer the best advocate of your brand. Discussing the importance of developing a stand-out reputation in a bustling marketplace, these authors articulate the finer points of an industry in which customer loyalty translates into increased revenues. From targeting the right audience to utilizing new media channels, these authorities offer practical and adaptable strategies for breaking through todays barrage of media to attain market mindshare.
