

Happy Kids : What Parents (& Grandparents) Need to Know to Raise Children To Be Great

Parents and grandparents want the best for their children and grandchildren and for them to be happy. Despite having the best of intentions, inadvertently they can smother and hamper the growth and abilities of their children. It is little wonder that they often lack confidence, self-esteem and are fraught with fears. This book is about allowing the natural genius in your children and grandchildren to shine and achieve its fullest potential. It is about uncovering that fully-functioning, no-limit human being that a child really is.
