

Hate Diets, Hate Water, Hate Exercising A PCOS Womans Dream To A Flatter Stomach

Ive suffered with PCOS for over 18 years and struggled with my weight, infertility, a beard and tons of symptoms. They always bang on about losing weight but I hate diets, I hate water and I hate exercising. I had to find a way that I was comfortable with so I started doing my research, talking to the doctors and other women with PCOS and finally I won. It wasnt easy and all those fad diets didnt work for me but i can successfully say that I now have regular cycles, my cysts have gone from my ovaries and my stomach is flatter (a work in progress) and I am so much happier with tons of self esteem. Hey look at me now looooool my head is held high. So I wrote this book to share with you my what I learnt and what I did to get back to a normal lifestyle. I really hope that you enjoy the book and please leave me your feedback and come and join us at www.savannahswift.co.uk my army is waiting for you, we need you.
