

How I Created a Six Figure Income Giving Away a Dead Guys Book

The Inside Secrets of an Internet Infopreneur When Vic Johnson launched a simple and basic website in 2001, hoping just to make an extra $10,000-$15,000 a year, little did he know that it would mushroom to six profitable sites serving more than 300,000 subscribers around the world. This book details the actual steps he took to build a seven-figure business he runs with a laptop computer. Vic Johnson's advice has added tens of thousands of dollars to my business over the past year. In fact, one of his ideas added over $100,000 revenue in one month. Pay attention to him and his material, you will be glad you did. Vic is one of the best things that ever happened to my business. Bob Proctor, star of The Secret DVD Vic is brilliant at Internet marketing. Loral Langemeier, bestselling author of The Millionaire Maker I've watched Vic Johnson come into an industry with no experience and no connections and in just a few years develop one of the most successful personal development sites on the web. He understands and applies the principles of successful Internet marketing as few in this industry do. He's the real deal! Kyle Wilson, President, Jim Rohn International Vic is truly a master. He took an idea, a dream, a vision he had, and methodically built it into a mini-empire. Vic is not only one of the most prolific marketers on the Internet today; from dealing with him personally on numerous occasions, I can also vouch that he's one of the most honest, ethical and downright nicest, as well. It's often been said that if you want to find the diamond mine, first get yourself the best possible map. If your goal is to create a six-figure income via the Internet, then the map in this case has an actual name. It's Vic Johnson! Bob Burg, bestselling co-author of The Go Giver
