[Read by Luci Christian] Liz Buckley has spent years working a gazillion hours a week picking up the slack for coworkers with kids -- and she's tired of it. Not quite knocked up . . . Like everyone in New York media, editor Liz Buckley runs on cupcakes, caffeine, and cocktails. But at thirty-one, she's plateaued at Paddy Cakes, a glossy baby magazine that flogs thousand-dollar strollers to entitled, hypercompetitive spawn-havers. Liz has spent years working a gazillion hours a week picking up the slack for coworkers with kids, and she's tired of it. So one day when her stress-related nausea is mistaken for morning sickness by her bosses -- boom! Liz is promoted to the mommy track. She decides to run with it and plans to use her paid time off to figure out her life: work, love, and otherwise. It'll be her meternity leave. By day, Liz rocks a foam-rubber belly under fab maternity outfits. By night, she dumps the bump for karaoke nights and boozy dinners out. But how long can she keep up her charade . . . and hide it from the guy who might just be The One? As her due date approaches, Liz is exhausted -- and exhilarated -- by the ruse, the guilt, and the feelings brought on by a totally fictional belly-tenant . . . about happiness, success, family, and the nature of love.
