

Spinoza on Knowledge and the Human Mind: Papers Presented at the Second Jerusalem Conference (Ethica II) (Spinoza by 2000)

Truth, adequacy and error, the Mind-Body relation and the meaning of having an idea are issues still at the center of philosophical debate. Spinoza belongs to those past masters whose work always inspires renewed insights on these as on other philosophical issues. This volume revolves around Part II of Spinozas opus magnum, the Ethics where he offers his theory of knowledge and the human mind. Stuart Hampshire writes about Truth and Correspondence; Alexandre Matheron discusses Ideas of Ideas and Certainty; Alan Donagan writes on Language, Ideas and Reasoning; Jonathan Bennett tackles the difficult one substance two attributes issue, and Yirmiyahu Yovel analyzes common notions and error. Papers are also presented by Jean-Luc Marion, Pierre-Francois Moreau, Guttorm Floistad, Wallace I. Matson, Wim Klever, Elhanan Yakira, Marcelo Dascal, Wolfgang Bartuschat, Amihud Gilead and Filippo Mignini. This book is based on the second Jerusalem Conference (1989). Each conference in this series, and the ensuing volume, focuses on a specific family of issues: the first five follow Spinozas own division in his Ethics, and the other two deal with Spinozas social and political theory and his life and sources. An outcome of a long-standing interest in Spinozistic thought by a group of first-rate scholars, this volume is sure to join the first one as indispensable reading for Spinoza students and scholars.
