

The Boy, The King, and The Chihuahua

The King dares his Towns People that if one of them can get to where he is at, at the top of the castle, and do it before the sun goes down, he will give that person his prize-winning dog named Lily. Will someone win the prize dog, Lily? Salvador SeBascos picture Book says volumes about character development and striving as a talent. The biggest problems in life are solved ...ONE STEP AT A TIME! Who taught you this lesson when you were a kid? How to not be afraid to take on the first step? To clap, when the impossible was imagined? To imagine the impossible! Now its your turn to take a step! In the interests of parents everywhere, Salvador SeBasco illustrates how simple it is to teach children this valuable lesson. His endearing stories help us to realize that the value of imagination, in everyday life, is understated. His widely appealing books each have a unique design feature; a progressive approach to teaching about positive character traits, with self-help sections for three different age groups. TEACHERS EDITION: Complete with 5 Tips to Teachers, a bonus section in the back of this book.
