

Chuck Noll: Ten Greatest Coaches of the NFL Volume 7 (Ten Greatest Coaches of the NFL Series)

Chuck Noll is difficult to describe. He was certainly a powerful man and an athlete strong-willed and ambitious. He was disciplined and a student of the game. But he kept his personal life personal and unlike many coaches he had varied interests that took up his time outside the practice fields. He was not a 24/7 football coach. He had a life outside of football. In one decade, he built a team of Hall of Famers. Noll won four Super Bowls in 6 years and nine AFC Central Division Championships. Noll pushed his Steelers to be fierce and competitive, but he wanted those qualities to be lasting and come from within. Team chemistry was important and he liked players who would not tolerate others with mediocre attitudes. Pittsburgh was a perfect place for Nolla perfect marriage between a coach and team owners and the great city they live in. Art Rooney and his offspring came from rough roots that are expressed fittingly by the teams fierce play. Noll was not much of a motivational speaker, but a team that played his Steelers would certainly need a recovery period before the next opponent. Here is the story of one of the greatest coaches in NFL history.
