

Science--A.S.A.P.: As Simple As Possible

From the appearance of the first humans through today's cutting-edge technologies, here are 200 scientific events that shaped the way we live today. How did Pasteur save the wine industry of France? How is it that blood transfusions were invented in the 1700s-but weren't safe for another two hundred years? How did Madame Curie set the stage for the development of atomic energy-and atomic weaponry?
