

Sylvias Hurt

My story has to be told as it really can change lives. To say I am a survivor is an understatement. I was failed by the system. My lovely children became pawns in the system. I myself was sectioned 27 times under the mental health act, labeled subnormal as a teenager, incarcerated in a low grade mental institute and left unable to tell anyone about my life. Fear stopped me. Their eyes, their body smells, still haunt me today.
