

Tales from the Sky Kitchen Cafe

True Stories of Pilots and the Brotherhood That Binds Them A collection of short stories to be enjoyed by pilots and non-pilots alike. Tales from the Sky Kitchen Cafe is a book of aviation based stories, which are not merely tales about flying, but are stories that go beyond aviation to tell of friendship, fraternity, and the fulfillment of dreams. It is a passionate and inspiring book which leaves the reader with a warm heart and a damp eye. The stories originate from a small airport diner called the Sky Kitchen Cafe, where local pilots congregate daily to exchange friendship and conversation. Mike Paull, one of these pilots, had lunch at the cafe almost every day for twenty years and during that time heard hundreds of stories. Tales from the Sky Kitchen Cafe shares twelve of these stories with the reader. The word portraits of passionate and persistent men and women overcoming fears, pursuing dreams and making amazing things happen will entertain and inspire the reader. Mike invites you to grab a seat at the center counter and get set for a very enjoyable and entertaining ride.
