

The 2-Second Commute

The 2-Second Commute is the perfect audiobook for anyone who wishes to work from home as a virtual assistant, providing everything from administrative support to high-end consulting via e-mail, phone and fax. Predicted to become a $100+ billion industry, virtual assistants don't commute, they set their own hours, and they get to spend time with their families. Based on the highly-successful Virtual Assistant training programs, authors Christine Durst and Michael Haaren developed for the US Armed Forces and the US Department of State. Now you can learn from Christine and Michael, too, and start your own successful VA business!
