

Understanding the Sunday Scriptures, Year C

The word lectionary means simply an ordered reading of Holy Scripture. To follow the lectionary is to engage in a disciplined reading of Scripture according to the wisdom of the Church-not necessarily according to ones personal preference. In that way, persons of faith span the entirety of Gods Word-the hard passages as well as the consoling ones-over a three-year period, Sunday by Sunday, as well as day by day. The lectionary keeps us honest-and also from reading the Parable of the Prodigal Son over and over until we turn into mush.
