

What Happy Women Do: Nail Night and the Unicorn Dance--A Salute to Sisterhood and the Rituals that Sustain Us

In this book, two communication scholars explore both the science and art of the best-female-friend-connection. They do so by sharing the stories of over 50 sets of sistahs and their sometimes silly, often heart-warming, and always-inspiring rituals of connection. In their own words, the women interviewed share what they do to create and sustain their relationships?-and how such friendships see them through the joys and hardships of everyday life.
